

WHEELER HIGH SCHOOL DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI

2012 Application

The Distinguished Alumni Program is sponsored and overseen by the North Stonington Education Foundation. The intent of the program is to formally recognize Wheeler High School graduates who, later in life, have made significant achievements in any of many occupations and professions.

As it is the mission of Wheeler High School to mold men and women to be achievers and contributors in the American tradition, it is the mission of this program to recognize and honor these Alumni of Wheeler High School who have put themselves forward as the paradigm of that ideal.

Finally, it is also the mission of the Distinguished Alumni to inspire current Wheeler High School students to aspire to similar achievements, and to underscore the fine educational opportunities offered by the North Stonington school system.

All honorees will have a plaque honoring their accomplishments hung in Alumni Hall of Wheeler High School and be recognized at a North Stonington Education Foundation Event.
